Status of Sportradar litigation with Genius Sports and FDC

October 11, 2022

The litigation has been resolved. The resolution enables FDC to continue to license and market FDC data, in future as it determines. Genius Sports shall maintain the exclusive right to provide low latency Official FDC betting data rights through 2024. Sportradar has agreed to refrain from unofficial in-stadia scouting of Premier League, Football League and Scottish Professional Football League matches, and has purchased a sublicense from Genius Sports for a delayed feed to be marketed as the Official FDC Secondary Feed, through 2024. The remaining terms of the settlement are confidential.
